

Ajay Rudra Raju

Manifesto

I think we need a vice president who can understand international students problems and make international students to communicate with with local students, so everyone can understand and know and respect. I want international to know about local and about University properly.

I think a chance for me so, I can prove that I can make better for students coming semister and these year