Special Recognition Awards

Pencampwr y Flwyddyn TrACE / TrACE Champion of the Year

Recognises students who consistently demonstrate compassion, respect, and empathy toward others. The award can consider behaviour, attitudes, and impact, outside of academic skills, that link in with TrACE. They do not have to be a TrACE champion, but those who are nominated meet the criteria that are aligned with TrACE principles.

Core Criteria:

1. Consistent Kindness

The student consistently shows kindness to others: noticing when someone is upset, offering help or a listening ear, being thoughtful in words and deeds without being asked - Relates to relationship-focused principle (empathic, compassionate, trusting) and person-centred approach: noticing others, understanding feeling

2. Empathy and Compassion

The student shows empathy: they try to understand how others feel, they step in to support someone who is struggling, and they do this naturally, not just when it's easy - Connects to empathy, inclusion, safe relationships. The emphasis of understanding and non-judgemental attitudes
